Section 14 – increases the percentage of total developer fee paid to developer on basis of percentage of completion and conversion from construction to permanent loan

II. Immediate and long-term effects.

II a. The Division does not anticipate any immediate or long term effects for this proposed regulation.

4. Impact on small business

The regulation has been analyzed by Housing Division Staff staff and their professional advisors as to impact on small business. The proposed regulation will not impose a direct and significant economic burden upon small business and will not directly restrict the formation, operation or expansion of small business.

5. Estimated cost to the agency for enforcement of the proposed regulation

The Division will not incur additional costs for the enforcement of these regulations.

6. Overlap and Duplication

The Division knows of no other state, local or federal regulations which this proposed regulation may overlap or duplicate.

7. Regulations required pursuant to federal law

The proposed regulations are not required pursuant to federal law.

8. Regulation provisions more stringent than federal regulations

The proposed regulations are not more stringent than federal regulations regulating the same activity.

9. Time, place and manner for comments.

Persons may present their views regarding the proposed regulation in writing to the Division at any time prior to February 12, 2015. Persons may also attend the public hearing on February 12, 2015.

10. This regulation does not establish a new fee nor increase an existing fee.

Persons wishing to comment upon the proposed action of the Nevada Housing Division may appear at the scheduled public hearing or may address their comments, data, views or arguments, in written form, to the addresses and parties shown above. Written submissions must be received by the Housing Division on or before the close of business, Thursday, February 12, 2015. If no person who is directly affected by the proposed action appears to request time to make an oral presentation, the Nevada Housing Division may proceed immediately to act upon any written submissions.

A copy of this notice and the regulation to be Adopted will be on file at the State Library, 100 Stewart Street, Carson City, Nevada, for inspection by members of the public during business hours. Additional copies of the notice and the regulation to be Adopted will be available at the Division office addresses shown above and in all counties in which an office of the agency is not maintained, at the main public library, for inspection and copying by members of the public during business hours. This notice and the text of the proposed regulation are also available in the State of Nevada Register of Administrative Regulations, which is prepared and published monthly by the Legislative Counsel Bureau pursuant to NRS 233B.0653, and on the Internet at <http://www.leg.state.nv.us/>. Copies of this notice and the proposed regulation will also be mailed to members of the public upon written request to Chris Tirey at ctirey@housing.nv.gov. A reasonable fee may be charged for copies if it is deemed necessary.

Upon adoption of any regulation, the agency, if requested to do so by an interested person, either before adoption or within 30 days thereafter, shall issue a concise statement of the principal reasons for and against its adoption, and incorporate therein its reason for overruling the consideration urged against its adoption.
